Part-Time Therapist

Veritas Psychotherapy and Counselling is seeking client-centred therapists to provide individual therapy for teens and adults and/or couples therapy. This is a part-time, independent contractor position with a hybrid model of in-person work at our Huntsville, ON office and online sessions. Candidates must have availability for in-person shifts.

As a therapist with Veritas, you will:

- Provide individual therapy for teens and/or adults and/or couples therapy across a range of presenting concerns.
- Maintain your own clinical records and complete documentation in the clinic's systems.
- Work within established operational policies and procedures to ensure smooth, professional care.

What we're looking for:

- Registered in good standing with the OCSWSSW or CRPO.
- Valid Professional Liability and Commercial Liability Insurance.
- Knowledge of multiple treatment modalities.
- Master's degree in Counselling Psychology, Psychology, Social Work, or a related discipline.
- Comfort level with basic technology and ability to follow operational procedures

To apply, please email your resume and cover letter to info@veritaspsychotherapy.ca.

We thank all applicants for their interest, however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Why Join Veritas Psychotherapy?

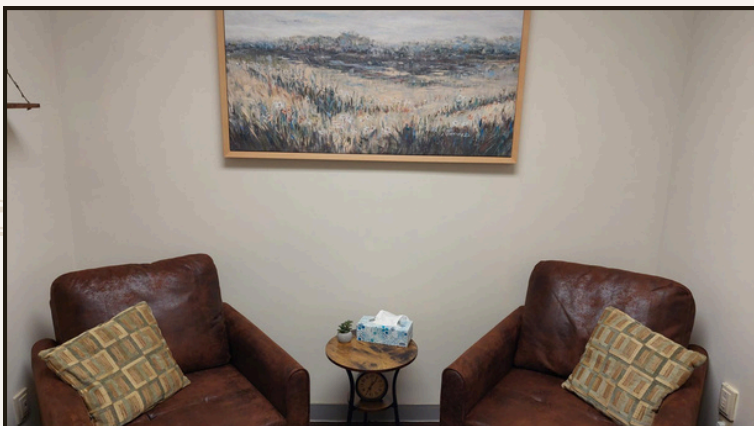

At Veritas, our mission is to help people understand and heal the root cause of their mental health challenges so they can experience long-lasting, transformational change.

We believe this kind of change is only possible through a strong therapeutic relationship.

We equally value our relationships with therapists and want our team members to flourish - building confidence in their unique therapeutic style and pursuing their professional goals. Our supportive framework frees you from the burdens of running a private practice while giving you the independence to practice in the way that best serves the clients you work with, and the space to be creative and grow into the best version of yourself.

What We Offer

- Clinical autonomy to create treatment plans and practice in your chosen modalities.
- Regular referrals through organic and paid marketing.
- Support in developing your niche and professional brand within our clinic.
- Streamlined administration systems including Jane App for client management.
- Furnished office space in a convenient location for in-person sessions.
- Dedicated administrative support to reduce your workload.
- Team connection with opportunities for collaboration and peer learning.
- Flexible in person and online shift availability to fit your schedule
- Competitive fee split
